Marrakesh, the multi-faceted beautiful ...

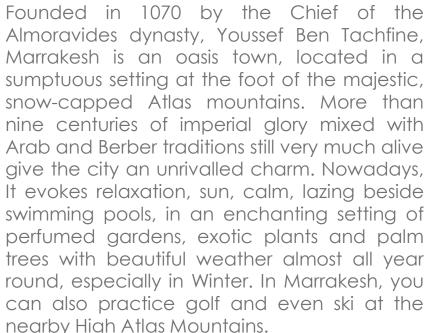

ADVENTURE

CLIMATE: Marrakesh experiences a hot, semi-arid climate. Summer ranges from warm to very hot, and most days are dry with long hours of sunshine. Winter ranges from mild to cold.

GASTRONOMY: Marrakesh has a great gastronomic reputation. Don't go to Marrakesh without tasting the famous tanjia: delicious dish based on mutton and spices, simmered overnight in hot ashes.

MUST-SEE: The Medina of Marrakesh (Unesco world heritage site since 1985) with the visit of the Souks and Jemaa El Fna Square, The Koutoubia Mosque, The Majorelle Garden, YSL Museum ...

THE OBEROI MARRAKECH

The Oberoi, Marrakech is located within twenty-eight acres of Mediterranean orchards with fragrant citrus trees and centuries old olive groves. Our five star hotel in Marrakech has beautifully landscaped gardens punctuated by water features. Its authentic architecture is inspired by palaces of ancient Morocco. The courtyard of the main building incorporates the design of the historic Medersa Ben Youssef, built in the 14th century; one of Marrakech's most famous historic monuments. The resort offers picturesque views of the majestic snow-capped Atlas Mountains.

AMANJENA

Amanjena

Inspired by the rose-hued buildings of old Marrakech and its 12th-century Menara gardens, palatial Amanjena lies just outside the fabled Red City. Amid shady courtyards with petal-strewn fountains, traditional earth-toned piséde-terre walls give way to the central bassin that nourishes the gardens. Radiating from this ornamental irrigation pool are spacious standalone guest pavilions, each with its own garden and gazebo, and many with private pools. Vaulted ceilings and Moorish arches house cool, elegant interiors, with a generosity of space reflecting the Sahara all around.

The Best camps in Agafay Stone Desert

The Agafay Stone Desert is located about thirty kilometres south of Marrakech and covers several hundred hectares. This desert, although rocky, can be likened to a sand desert. Indeed, its white dunes stand out from the landscape and are similar to the dunes of the Sahara.

In the middle of this desert, lost in the desert hills that look like dunes, are still some Berber villages that continue to exist in this austere but sublime nature.

At the gates of Marrakech, this stone desert will surprise you and make you forget the intense atmosphere of the center of Marrakech.

This illuminated vastness offers many possibilities of activities, in addition to exceptional accommodation with a touch of nomadism, in a simple and exotic place.

The bivouacs offer the possibility to spend the night in the middle of the Agafay desert, sleeping under a tent that offers all the comfort and well-being without concession.

Located in the heart of the stony Agafay Desert, THE WHITE CAMEL

Lodge & tented camp blends perfectly into the magnificent natural setting of the desert and offers a breathtaking view of the Atlas Mountains. Far from the city and the hustle and bustle of the major tourist centres of the red city. only in 45 minutes from Marrakech, you will discover this little paradisiacal corner in the heart of nature on marked trails in the distance. THE WHITE CAMEL awaits you for a unique stay full of charm, authenticity, quietud and quality of welcome of our staff

Marrakech Yves Saint Laurent's Inspiration

Majorelle Garden: The garden is named by its founder, the French painter Jacques Majorelle (1886-1962), who created it in 1931, inspired by the oases, Islamic garden and Spanish-Hispano-Moorish garden. Bought by Yves Saint Laurent and Pierre Bergé in 1980, it now belongs to the Fondation Jardin Majorelle.

Yves Saint Laurent Museum: The Yves Saint Laurent Museum of Marrakesh (MYSLM) is a museum dedicated to the fashion designer Yves Saint Laurent in Marrakech, Morocco, as well as to Jacques Majorelle and Moroccan art.

Cooking Class at La Maison Arabe

The legendary restaurant at la Maison Arabe today offers cooking workshops designed for the amateur and professional alike.

The workshops are conducted by a dada (traditional Moroccan cook) or a chef from our Moroccan restaurant, and are held at the hotel. Small groups of maximum 10 participants work alongside a translator (Arabic/English/French), using easy-to-use modern equipment found in everyday kitchens. At the end of each workshop, participants dine on the meal they have prepared. At a typical half-day workshop, one learns to prepare an appetizer and a main dish, or a main dish and dessert.

The Insiders Experience

Whether you wander through the maze of the medina, through the remains of the old French Quarter or in the mythical palm grove, Marrakech will surprise you.

An amazing flea market, hidden gardens behind heavy gates, the khettaras of the palm grove or old art deco buildings are some of the forgotten treasures off the beaten track that you will discover with your hair in the wind aboard your sidecar.

Each sidecar can take up to 2 passengers. Your insider drives the sidecar so that you can enjoy the trip to the fullest.

Express Rally

Concept of the Rally:

The group will be divided into teams.

Each team will follow a detailed road book to reach places in the Medina (Foundouks and Riads), where workshops are organized. The proposed workshops will be managed by craftsmen and assistants, who will be present to give explanations to the participants and assist them during each workshop.

Examples of the tests/challenges proposed for this rally:

- Gnawa Music: Participants will be introduced to Gnawa music and dance by a local troupe before having to perform their own show to attract the maximum number of spectators.
- The Bartender: The participants of each team will occupy one of the orange juice carts in the Jamaa el Fna square, present on site. Each team will have a number of oranges to squeeze using the manual juicer, in order to obtain the maximum amount of juice in record time!
- The big clean-up: Participants will be welcomed in a shop that sells traditional outfits for a disguise and photo session before being asked to help the owner put his store in order!
- The blind test: The participants of each team will have to recognize and distinguish between different spices, essential oils and aromatic plants. Participants in this challenge will be blindfolded!

10-250 people

5 Senses Rally

Travel through your senses in the Medina and Souks of Marrakech!

5 tests/challenges are planned during this program. Each trial/challenge requires the awakening of one of your senses.

The challenges are planned at several places in the Medina to be found with the help of the road book that you will be given at the beginning of the program. An assistance team will be present at each location to explain the games, to manage the rotations and for the scoring.

Challenges proposed for this rally:

- Visit of the dyers' souk for the Color Challenge
- Visit of the Spice Square (Rahba Laqdima) for the Scents Challenge
- Visit of the Souk Guessabine for the dried fruit tasting challenge and visit of the Jamaa el fna square for the orange press challenge.
- Visit the Souk el Haddadine for the challenge of touching with initiation to the work of zellige and the constitution of mosaic puzzles.
- Visit of the Jamaa el Fna square for the hearing challenge with an activity led by the Gnaouas.

The photo report during the rally: The photo report must be made by each team under the same theme of the rally (The 5 senses).
